Dy Coll.

Note - I never travelled by steamer as I am not accustomed to sea voyage. The delay in submitting this bill is attributable to pressure of work. D. Sudarshana Rao Dy Coll.

The Deputy Collector states that he was unable to do so from pressure of work.

3. It is true that he had a good deal to do and it is possible that the matter has been lost sight of through this press of work, and I therefore beg to recommend that the bill may be sanctioned.

4. In July 1872, Sudarsana Row Pantulu did entertain a doubt as to whether he could draw the travelling allowance now claimed, because he was transferred after several applications to Government, but I told him that he is entitled to the allowance as the transfer was not Gazetted as having been made at his request.

orders of Government through the Accountant General.

It is not clear whether Sudarshana Rau was transferred to Narasapur with reference to his previous applications for a change or to meet the exigencies of the service. In the latter case alone he is entitled to travelling allowance.
