Madras

SIR,

During the past week there has been again a general fall of rain throughout the District, again heaviest to the east, Sadpatry, than to the west, Hazrapanhally and Madgally.

2. Dry lands are generally being cultivated with horse gram, Korra, Ragi &c.; it is too late to sow Yellow Cholum or Dholl.

3. Agricultural labourers are now obtaining employment and I hope that the period of their distress has passed away.

4. Pasture of course has not sprung

up

up yet and dry fodder is very scarce and dear.

Prospects however have much improved. We hope for more rain.

5. Prices are stationary and not high and the public health is good.

Bellary Collector's Office
4th September 1873.

I have &c.
(Signed) J. H. Master
