The Malabar District has four Land Custom Chowkeys on the Mahé frontier. Two of these were in charge of the Amin on Rs. 20, and the Sea Custom Clerk on the same salary; and the other two were in charge of two Peons on Rs. 6 each: (one of them belonging to the Sea Custom Department) and all were supervised by the Sea Custom Superintendent at the mouth of the Mahé river. The present revision provides for a more suitable and efficient agency for the management of these Chowkeys. One only of the Amins has been allowed Rs. 30 a-month, as he is in charge of Chowkey No. 1, where the receipts are large. The increase of Rs. 20 a-month to the salary of the Sea Custom Superintendent is necessary, to ensure his efficient supervision of these Land frontier Chowkeys, which work he has to perform in addition to the ordinary duties of his post.
