Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,

7th July 1873.

No. 55. Read the following letter from J. W. HANDLEY, Esq., Government Pleader, Madras, to the Hon. R. A. DALYELL, Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Madras, 26th June, 1873, No. 111 :—

G. O., 13th February 1873, No. 177.

With reference to the Proceedings of Government, in the Revenue Department, noted in the margin, I have the honour to forward a copy, sent to me by the Registrar of the High Court, Appellate Side, of a letter from the Registrar of the Privy Council. The appeals alluded to are those in the Marungapury case, although one of them is erroneously described in the letter as "the appeal of the Collector of Trichinopoly as guardian of Runga Kristna Muttu Veerapuchaiya Naicker," whereas the only appeal by the Collector was on behalf of Government, and not as guardian for the Zemindar, who attained his majority long ago. The letter states that both the Collector's appeal and the cross-appeal by the plaintiff stand dismissed for want of prosecution. As far as the Collector's appeal is concerned, I presume it was abandoned in accordance with the views expressed in the above order of Government. I shall apply for the return of the Government Promissory Notes deposited in the High Court as security for costs.

No. 56. ORDER THEREON, 7th July 1873, No. 699.

Sir

I have the honor to inform you that no effectual steps have been taken for the prosecution of the Appeal of the Collector of Trichinopoly as Guardian of Runga Krishna Muthu Veera Puchaiya Naicker v. Lakshammani and Cross-Appeal from a Decree of the High Court of Judicature at Madras of the 8th November 1871 although more than ten months have now elapsed since the arrival of the Transcript and the registration thereof in this Office, and I hereby Certify that in pursuance of Rule 4 of Her Majesty's Order in Council of the 13th June 1853, the said Appeal doth stand dismissed without further Order.

I am therefore to request you to bring this Communication before the Judges of the said High Court of Judicature in Order that the necessary steps may be
