The Secretary to Government
Revenue Department.

SIR,

I have the honour to report that Mr. Kattiravalu Modelly one of the two persons appointed to do duty as Record Keepers with reference to G.O. No. 589 of the 10th April 1872 not having passed the Uncovenanted Civil Service examination required in Notification dated 26th April 1861 has been granted as Assistant Draughtsman on a salary of Rs. 25 whilst employed on trial as Record Keeper.

2. As this person is now reported to have fully qualified himself in the record Department & as it is not desirable that he should hold one appointment & perform the duties of another I have the honour to recommend for the favourable consideration of Government that he should be exempted from passing the prescribed test & that he should be permitted to draw pay in excess of Rs. 20 as long as he continues to be employed as Record Keeper in the Revenue Survey Department.

3. His services in the Department extend over

9

9 years and 2 months & his conduct has been uniformly good.

I have the honour to be
