19th July 1873.

Read the following papers :—

No. 174. From Colonel F. J. B. PRIESTLEY, Superintendent of Revenue Survey, to the Hon. R. A. DALYELL, Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Chepauk, 9th July 1873, No. 1,590-53.

Last night I received a telegram from Captain J. G. Cloeté, whose leave (three months' privilege) expired this day, reporting his arrival at Galle, and stating that, for want of a steamer bound to Madras direct, he cannot join his appointment before the 17th instant, via Bombay; thus over-staying his leave by eight days (one day in excess of the week allowed with forfeiture of pay).

2. I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to exempt this officer from the loss of appointment forfeited under Section 24 of the Leave Rules, as his detention has been involuntary and due to circumstances beyond his control.

Chapter XII., Section 24, paragraph 5.

3. Captain Cloeté is, moreover, one of the most efficient officers in the department, and his services can ill be spared.

Referred to the Accountant-General for his observations.
