No. 176. Read the following despatch fr the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India:—

Judicial,
No. 6.

INDIA OFFICE, LONDON,
4th June 1873.

MY LORD,—The Revenue despatch your Excellency in Council, dated 18th February, No. 4 of 1873, relative t appeal to the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council in the Marun puri case, has been considered by me in Council.

2. Your Lordship in Council consid that it would be better to abandon the appeal in this case. Since the receipt your despatch it was ascertained that the respondent in that appeal had filed a cross-appeal; it was, therefore, hoped that your Lordship's Government might appe co-respondent in the cross-appeal, and argue that the High Court had no jurisd ion in the matter under dispute. But I have now been informed that the cross-ap al has been abandoned, and I have been assured that there is no probability o our Government being allowed to raise the question of the jurisdiction of the H Court in the character of appellant, as the ultimate decision of the High Court w in favour of your nominee. I have, therefore, directed that the appeal in the Mar apuri case be withdrawn, and I will await a further communication from your E llency in Council as to some other case in which the question of jurisdiction c e raised by appeal to the Privy Council.

I have, etc.,
ARGYLL.

The Governor in Council, Fort George.
