Secretary to the Board of Revenue*

SIR,

Madras

G. Kristna Rao a Gomasta and M. Verasami Iyer a Revenue Inspector in the Chittoor Talug, drawing a salary of Rs 20 and 25 per mensem respectively, and who have attained the age of 55 years were retained in the service from 1st April to 24th and 28th July last respectively when they were permitted to retire. The Accountant General has retrenched the salaries of these men for the months of April and May 1873 for want of sanction of Government to their retention in service after they attained the

The

the age of 55 years and ordered their pay to be recovered. In consequence of this, the salaries of the above individuals for the subsequent months have been withheld in the pay abstracts for June & July 1873. I have therefore the honor to request that the Board will be pleased to obtain the sanction of Government at an early date for the payment of the salaries due to G. Krishna Rao and M. Verasami Iyer for the period they were actually retained in service viz from 1st April to 24th and 28th July last respectively.
