SIR,

With reference to the enclosed copy of an Objection Statement of the Accountant General I have the honor to report that Rama Row Sabapathy Mudaly and Venkata Row although they have attained the age of 55 years are fit for further effective service, and I request therefore sanction for their retention in public employ. As regards the last named individual, the Sub Collector who examined him recommends that, as he is a useful and capable Government servant, he should be allowed to remain in the service for a further term of 5 years, subject to the usual annual report

2. Narasimma Chairy and Gurumurthy Iyer being inefficient, their services were discontinued from 18th & 11th Ultimo respectively.

3. I have called for further particulars regarding the conduct and capabilities of Ramanuja Pillay.
