Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 6th December 1873.

No. 60. Read the following Proceedings of the Government of India, Financial Department, dated Fort William, 14th November 1873, No. 3000 (Accounts):—

Read again—

Financial Resolution, No. 1388, dated the 30th June 1873, on the subject of the annual adjustment of all permanent advances.

Read also the undermentioned papers, pointing out that the system of adjustment prescribed in the above Resolution, viz., that the advances should be refunded on the last day of each year and drawn again on the next office day, is attended with inconvenience in some respects, and suggesting a modification of the system:—

Letter from the Government of Bombay, No. 3531, dated 2nd October 1873, and enclosure.

Letter from the Accountant-General, Bengal, No. 9132, dated 22nd October 1873.

RESOLUTION.—The Governor-General in Council is pleased to withdraw the orders of 30th June 1873, and to direct the adoption of the following system.

2. On the first office day after the 31st March of each year, every officer who has received an advance shall address to the Accountant-General a brief acknowledgment that the amount is due from, and to be accounted for by, him.

3. In case any officer fails in making such acknowledgment, the Accountant-General should immediately demand it from him.

4. Whenever there is a transfer of the charge of an office to which a permanent advance is made, the relieving officer shall always address to the Accountant-General an acknowledgment as above.

5. Each Accountant-General shall carefully keep up a personal register of the advances made to each officer.

ORDERED that this Resolution be distributed for information and guidance as follows:—

To the several Departments of the Government of India.

To the several Local Governments and Administrations.

To the Comptroller-General, and to the several Accountants-General and Deputy Accountants-General in independent charge.
