Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
20th August 1873.

No. 165. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 25th June 1873, No. 1,101 :—

Read the following letter from J. H. MASTER, Esq., Acting Collector of Bellary, to W. ROBINSON, Esq., C.S.I., Inam Commissioner, Madras, dated Tadputry, 12th February 1873, No. 25:—

"Hanumanta Charlu, holder of one-eighth share in the Sarvainam village of Peddapalli, in the Penakonda Taluq, having died on the 11th February last, I have the honour to submit a statement of the Inam in the prescribed form.

2. As the share of the deceased is to be resumed under the circumstances stated in the statement. I herewith forward the title-deed, No. 1,248, for necessary alterations and subsequent return."

TRANSFERRED to the Board of Revenue for disposal.

2. In 1870 the Inam Commissioner issued a Circular to all Collectors, intimating that no report to the Board was necessary in regard to unenfranchised Inams; that no interference should take place so long as any heir of the description referred to in Section 5 of the Inam Rules survives; and that, on default, the Inam should be fully assessed.

3. So far as the Commissioner is concerned, no further information is required.

4. But I would suggest that the Board require an annual return of lapsed Inams to be submitted with the Settlement Report.

5. It is desirable that the Board should be kept acquainted with the progress of matters in this respect.

MADRAS, 24th March 1873.

(Signed) W. ROBINSON,
Inam Commissioner.

To the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, with two Enclosures.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.—Statement of Inam.

ENCLOSURE No. 2.—Title-deed, No. 1,248.

A CERTAIN share-holder of the Inam village of Peddapalli, in the Penakonda Taluq, died without direct lineal heirs, but leaving a divided paternal uncle's son named Nursimha Moortacharlu. The Collector proposes to fully assess the Inam, as the village was not enfranchised and as the heir left is a divided member of the family.

2. From the lapse report, however, submitted by the Collector, the Board observe that the heir, Nursimha Moortacharlu, is a descendant of the original grantee. If so, he is entitled to inherit the Inam under the recent interpretation* by Government of Inam Rule V., and the Inam cannot be fully assessed. The Collector will accordingly be requested to continue the Inam to Nursimha Moortacharlu after satisfying himself that he is a descendant of the original grantee.

* G. O. dated 17th May 1873, No. 497.

20th August 1873.

3. In future, Inams liable to be fully assessed under the rule may be incorporated with Government lands by Collectors without reference to the Board, but a tabular statement of lapses should be submitted to the Board in the accompanying form once in six months, i.e., on the 15th of January and July respectively.
