Dear Grose,

I am writing officially to ask the Board to allow me to place Moore in charge of the Deputy Collector's Division and the Deputy Collector in charge of his for a few months. I have not given any reason officially because I only want to have the Deputy Collector's Division overhauled in a quiet way, and I think it will do Moore good to knock about at it. He never seems to leave Trichy and can know very little of the actual way in which work is done in the villages. So I think it would do him good also.

I shall get the Head Assistant to come in when I go out, so that he will have a little change also, and I hope hope the Board will concur. It will only be for 3 or 4 months.

Yours Sincerely
(Signed) J. B. Pennington
