

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 25th August 1873.

No. 210. Read the following letter from G. BANBURY, Esq., Director of Revenue Settlement, to the Hon. R. A. DALYELL, Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Madras, 23rd July 1873, No. 1,524-41:—

REFERRING to G. O., 4th August 1862, No. 1,653, I have the honour to submit, for the orders of Government, a letter (in original to be returned) from my Deputy in the Nellore and North Arcot Districts, dated 22nd ultimo, No. 435, and to request, under the circumstances therein stated, sanction for the exemption from the Examination Rules of Mudgala Kristnacharu and Pundla Sheshaya, whom it is proposed to employ as temporary Head Gumastahs on salaries of Rs. 25 each. It certainly seems hard that when temporary promotion of this kind occurs, it must be denied to those who have earned a claim thereto by good work in the field and in office, and whose experience in this special task renders them specially competent for the duties to be carried out.

No. 211. ORDER THEREON, 25th August 1873, No. 904.

Miscellaneous.

UNDER the special circumstances set forth in the foregoing correspondence, His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to sanction the temporary promotion of M. Kristnacharu and P. Sheshaya to the post of Head Gumastah; and desires that, while thus employed, their places may be filled by passed men, of whom it is admitted that there is no scarcity, and who will thus be enabled to acquire that experience which is at present advanced as the objection to their employment.

2. Mr. Banbury must abstain in his own office, and require his subordinates rigidly to abstain, from employing unpassed men. It is this practice which creates the difficulty, so constantly experienced in his department, of carrying out the Examination Rules.

From The Director Pro. Settlements Dated 29 July 1973 No. 1524/141 187.

FOR ORDERS.

I would permit them as a special case - the places of the two men being filled during their leave by any one as Head from astals by passed men. of whom we

These date admits. There are plenty - looking at experience which they will, by their arrangement, have an opportunity of acquiring - Mr. Bannery must abstain in his own Office, and require his subordinates ^{to} to abstain rigidly from employing untested men - It is this practice which creates the difficulty to constantly experienced in his debt

of carrying out the examinator Rules. ()

PROCEEDINGS of the MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

25 Aug. 73.

Read the following letter from the Director of Revenue Settlement.

Requesting sanction for the exemption from the examination rules of Mudgala Kristnachari and Pundla Sheshaya as they are about to be employed as temporary Head Kumastahs on Rs 25- each.

H. E. 23rd July/73 No 1524 41.

Under the special circumstances set forth in the foregoing correspondence, His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to sanction the temporary promotion of M. Kristnachari and
P. Sheshaya to the post of Head Kumastah, and orders that while thus employed, their places may be filled by persons men of whom it is admitted that there is no scarcity and who

who will thus be enabled to acquire that experience which is at present advanced advantage to their employment.

2 Mr. Paubury must abstain in his own office, and require his subordinates rigidly to abstain from employing impressed men. It is this practice which creates the difficulty so constantly experienced in his Department of carrying out the Examination Rules. L. S.
