Revenue,

No. 13. INDIA O[illegible]

26th June 1873.

MY LORD,—The despatch of your Excellency in Council, dated 28th March, No. 145 (Financial) of 1873, relative to a question of continuing the pension of the late Zemindar of the Vasareddi estates in the Northern Circars to his adopted son, has been considered by me in Council.

2. The merits of this case have been clearly stated by the Government of Madras and by the Board of Revenue in that Presidency. I am inclined on the whole, while recognizing the justice of the distinctions drawn by your Excellency in Council, to give the adopted son the full benefit of the rule of the 11th September 1871, and to continue to him the entire pension instead of only three-fourths.

I have, etc.,
