Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,

27th August 1873.

No. 221. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 14th August 1873; Miscellaneous No. 5,137:—

Read the following letter from W. McQUHAE, Esq., Collector of Madura, to J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 26th July 1873.

With reference to the order of Government, in the Revenue Department, dated 13th February 1873, No. 174, I have the honour to report that the period for which Totadrinath Row was suspended will expire at the end of this month, and that no other Record-keeper is willing to exchange appointments with him.

2. The only arrangement I can suggest for his re-employment is that he should exchange appointments with the Taluq Sheristadar of Periacolum, but he has not passed the necessary tests for the post of Sheristadar, and, as he has served for twenty-five years, he cannot be expected to pass now. He has only passed the High Court Ministerial Test and Precise-Writing, Higher Grade. In these circumstances, I beg to recommend that Government be requested to exempt him from the necessity of passing the usual tests.

3. I enclose a list of his service. He is a good Accountant, but got into some trouble in connection with a murder-case when he was acting as Sub-Magistrate at Ramnad, and was obliged to revert to his substantive appointment as English Clerk. I believe he was very little to blame in that matter; and the late Ponnusami Taver and Mr. Fischer being both concerned in the case, it is probable that his task was a peculiarly difficult one.

THE Collector having no other means of providing for the employment of Totadrinath Row,* except by appointment, the orders of Government are requested, exempting him from the necessity of passing the examination according to the rules.

2. His list of service is enclosed. The Collector states that he is a good Accountant.

No. 222. ORDER THEREON, 27th August 1873, No. 910.

Miscellaneous.

UNDER the special circumstances of the case, the Governor in Council is pleased to sanction the appointment of Totadrinath Row to be Sheristadar of the Periacolum Taluq, although he has not passed the Special Tests required for that office.
