Revenue Board Office
Madras

Miscellaneous No 8495 12th December 1873

From,

The Secretary to the Board of Revenue

To,

The Secretary to Government
Revenue Department

Sir,

Under the Regulation constituting the Board of Revenue there must be more than one Member of the Board and two Members are necessary to form a Board.

Four months ago the Second Member left the Board to act as a Member of Council This evening the First Member Mr Forbes retires from the Service - No one has been appointed to take the place of either.

Mr. Thornhill the only Member who will be left in the Board tomorrow requests instructions as to what Govern-ment wish to be done in this Office until another Mem-ber takes his seat. He is of opinion that ordinary routine instructions may be issued as Memoranda by the Secretaries but that no orders can be passed on any subject.

There are no precedents.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your Most Obedient Servant
J Grote
Secretary
