Sir,

Item No. 16 of the Collection demand and balance statement of Costs awarded in Civil Suits forwarded with the Jummabundi report for Fasli 1281 exhibits 1000 rupees due by Muttuswadan and others. Of this, 95 rupees have been collected, and the Sub-Collector reports that the parties have no other property of any description. I therefore request sanction to write off the remaining Rs 905 as irrecoverable.

To

J. Grose Esqr.
Secretary to the Board of Revenue
Madras.

Sir,

In reply to the Board's official Memorandum No. 1637 dated 19th ultimo, I have the honor to inform you, that the 1000 rupees alluded to was the ad valorem value of the Stamps which should have been purchased by one Muttumadan who brought a pauper suit in the Court. This suit was thrown out by the Civil Judge, and under the provisions of the Civil Procedure Code, the Collector was directed to recover the value of the Stamps that should have been used. Only 95 rupees were, however, recoverable, and sanction was applied for to write off off the remaining 905 rupees from the accounts.

2. The other item noted in the above proceedings, though irrecoverable, was not explained in the body of the Jummabendi report. The Tahsildar has, however, reported on 4 different occasions that the defaulter has no property.

I have &c.
