No. 63. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 3rd September 1873, Miscellaneous No. 5,640 :—

Read the following letter from W. S. WHITESIDE, Esq., Collector of North Arcot, to J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Chittoor, 6th August 1873, No. 465.

With reference to the Proceedings of the Board, dated 24th ultimo, Miscellaneous No. 4,665, communicating G. O., dated 17th idem, No. 111, calling for a report as to the cause of the delay in the adjustment of the Railway Company's claim against the Treasury Deputy-Collector of this district, I have the honour to transmit copy of a letter* from the Treasury Deputy, from which the Board will observe that there has been no delay whatever on his part in adjusting the Railway Company's claim.

* Dated 2nd August 1873, No. 770.

Enclosure No. 1.

From J. A. MARJORIBANKS, Esq., Deputy-Collector, in charge of the Treasury, North Arcot, to W. S. WHITESIDE, Esq., Collector of North Arcot, dated Chittoor, 2nd August 1873, No. 770.

With reference to the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 24th ultimo, Miscellaneous No. 4,665 (a spare copy of which has been sent to me), I have the honour to inform you that there was no delay in this office in the adjustment of the claim of Rs. 5 of the Madras Railway Company therein referred to, as will be seen from the explanation given below.

2. With his letter, dated 11th October 1872, No. 407-707, the Chief Auditor of the Madras Railway Company forwarded to me a bill, numbered 56½ and 60½, for Rs. 131-2-0, which was remitted to him by a Remittance Transfer Receipt with my docket, dated 15th October 1872, No. 274.

3. In his letter, dated 3rd January last, No. 802-2,051, the Chief Auditor requested me to remit to him a sum of Rs. 5, being the amount of bill No. 60¾, enclosed in the above letter. But on a reference to the letter and bill quoted in the second paragraph of this letter, I found the amount of the bill No. 60¾ had already been included in the above-mentioned sum of Rs. 131-2-0, and intimated the same to that officer, who, in his letter, dated 5th February last, No. 5,236, acknowledged that the sum of Rs. 5 had also been charged in bill No. 60½, and requested me to return for cancellation the bill No. 60¾ which was accordingly re-transmitted to him with my letter, dated 10th February 1873, No. 49.

Submitted to Government, with reference to G. O., 17th July 1873, No. 111.

2. It appears that there was no delay on the part of the Treasury Deputy-Collector in adjusting the claim of the Railway Company. The bill was presented on the 11th October and paid on the 15th.
