№ 98

From

The Acting Collector of Salem

To

The Secretary to the Board of Revenue,
Madras

Sir,

I have the honor to report for the information of the Board, that, pending the arrival of Mr Wallace, I have given over charge of my Division to the Acting Head Assistant Collector Mr Le Fanu, and requested the Assistant Collector Mr Knox to manage Mr Le Fanu's Division:

2. I have arranged that we shall each retain our former Magisterial work.

3. I have several Magisterial cases, two heavy ones, on hand and the Jamabandi of the whole of the sub Division has been left undone. I had only got through a third of this Taluq in which the New

Settlement

Settlement is being introduced when I received the Gazette appointing me to act for Mr Longley, who had proposed to settle Cossoor himself, instead of Ahtur which I took this year.

4. I could not manage the District, 5 Talugs, the Magisterial cases of the Sub division and the Jamabandi, without falling into arrears and I have, therefore, made the arrangements above alluded to, which I trust that the Board will see proper to sanction.

I have &c.

Salem

(Signed) J. F. Price
Ag. Collector.

The arrangements reported in this letter are approved.
