Secretary to the Board of Revenue
Madras.

SIR,

The ryots of Gedapolleim, a hamlet of Velaur in the Wallajah Taluq, request that certain puttah lands measuring Cawnie --5--6 assessed at Rs --6-9 paid belonging to the different individuals may be given to them free of assessment for the formation of a path as their village is surrounded with wet cultivation, and there is no road or path available whereby the Ryots can take their cattle to the adjacent hills for grazing. I in complying with their request, portion of the Curnam's Inam land C. --1-4 assessed at Rs --1-7, has to be surrendered. My Head Assistant reports that the guardian and Gumastah of the Curnam does not
