Miscellaneous No. 2407.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue dated 23rd April 1873.

Read the following

No. 613.

From,

G. Vansittart Esqre.,
Collector of Nellore.

To,

J. Grose Esqre.,
Secretary to the,
Board of Revenue,
Madras.

Sir,

I have the honor to submit copy of a petition, dated 8th instant, from the individuals noted in the margin, together with copies of their service registers, and to request the favorable consideration of the Board and Government to the cases of these individuals.

2. No. 1 first entered the Government service as Military Writer on a salary of 10 Rupees on the 12th September 1859. He gradually rose to the grade of 5th English Accountant on a salary of Rs. 25, to which he was appointed on the 21st December 1864, at which period period the rules in force permitted unpaged candidates to hold appointments the salaries of which did not exceed Rs. 25. He was subsequently transferred to the Huzur Sheristá department as 6th Vernacular Clerk on the same salary, and has since had no increase in consequence of the Examination rules in force.

" 3. Ramalatso Lakshmanarao.

3. No. 2 was entertained as 8th English Accountant of this Office on a salary of Rs. 15 on the 27th December 1864. He now holds the appointment of 12th English Accountant on the same salary, having had no promotion whatever, as he had not paged the General Test Examination.

4. No. 3 was entertained on the 15th August 1861 as Military Writer on a salary of 10 Rs. On the 1st July 1862, he was promoted to the grade of 9th English Accountant on a salary of 15 Rs. Under the recent changes of the Establishment, he became 11th English Accountant on the same salary (15 Rs.) from 1st June 1866, in which grade he is still employed, as he also had been debarred from promotion under the Examination Rules.

Nos. 1 and 3 have repeatedly appeared for the Test and failed.

5th These men are hardworking experienced office hands, who have practically proved themselves qualified for promotion, and deserved it. It would take a young paged hand years to attain their efficiency as accountants or clerks.

6. It is not probable they will, at their age and with the heavy work on their hands, ever pass the General Test. I would therefore recommend their exemption from the General Test, so that they may in future be promoted on their merits.

Nellore Collector's Office
