MISCELLANEOUS No. 2748. REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE.

Dated 6th May 1873.

Read the following

№ 295.

From

W. S. Foster Esqre.
Acting Collector.

To

J. Grose Esqre.
Secretary to the Board of Revenue,
Madras.

SIR,

I have the honor to bring to the notice of the Board that an English Accountant in my Office, Nrsinha Kanti Hanumantarão, receiving a salary of 20 Rs. per mensem has applied to me for promotion as there was a vacancy in filling up the Narsapur Jamadari's place.

2. He is indeed an industrious hardworking and willing servant, besides being very useful in the department to which he is attached. He has some knowledge of English sufficient to qualify him for the post he holds. He was employed on Rs. 20, before the rules extending the the General Test what amount of salary were fixed. With all the qualifications he possesses, Hanmantarao could not rise in the service, simply because the rules require him to pass the General Test, which however he has unfortunately not passed. He does an important portion of the account work, and has hardly time to study for the test. I should think that the test comprising as it does Geography and Telugu Grammar is certainly of no use to a man of Hanmantarao's official experience, though it might be to one whose General Knowledge has for the first time to be tested. I enclose a statement of the man's services which begin in 1856. He had acted in several offices before and after the 1st January 1859, and was actually in service on that date though acting, and he was entertained on the permanent establishment in 1861, so that he has now 11 years services qualifying for pension besides 2—5—4 the length of his service in temporary posts. In consideration consideration of all these circumstances I have thought it unjust to deprive Hanmantarao of the promotion to which he is entitled in preference this fellows, and I wish to appoint him from a Rs 20 to a Rs 25 post as an English Accountant, subject to Board's sanction, and I request that the Board will recommend the man's exemption from the General Test, for which I may again repeat he has hardly time to study.

3. I may add that there are a few more of this kind whose case deserves consideration and I believe that some departure from the strict adherence to the rules ought to be allowed for the benefit of the individuals as well as of the public service.

Submitted for the favorable consideration of Government.

As Hanmantarao has served the Government for two years previous to 1859, though not in permanent posts, the Board are of opinion that he should have the benefit of the exemption which frees those already employed previous to 1859 from Examination.—
