Proceedings of the Board of Revenue held 3 April 1873.

Read the following.—

No 62.

From A. MacGregor Esqre
Master of Mahabs

To J. Grose Esqre
Secretary to the Board of Revenue

Madras.

Sir,

In accordance with Government
Order dated 9th December 1872 No 1576.
Br Underwood, Deputy Master Dyad, assumed charge of the Tribl Master's office at Tellicherry on the 21st December 1872, and under Government Order dated 6th February 1873 No 191 remained in charge until 6th March 1873.

2. During the time he was at Tellicherry besides the Expence of moving and returning he had 600 Rs. a month, 150 Rs. being the Dyad allowance, and 150, the Tribl allowance of the Master in charge of the Dyad.

The

3. The total loss of salary of Mr. Underwood is:—

In December 1872. 11 days —	Rs 106-7-5.
In January 1873 —	300--
" February —	300--
In March. 2 days —	19-6-8
	Total 725-12-11

4. Mr. Underwood applies to the above to draw as Deputation allowance $\frac{2}{3}$ of the difference between his pay including the special Wynaad local allowance of Rs. 150, and that of a Asst Collector.

The amount of this is:—

For December 1872. 11 days at Rs 277-12-6 per mensem —	Rs à 10 98-9--
January 1873 —	277-12-5
February " —	277-12-5
March. 2 days —	17-14-9
	672---7
Special Wynaad local allowance for the above period at Rs. 150 per mensem —	362-14-5
	Rs. 1034-15--

5. Section 19 (a) of the Acting allowance Code would not apply to this case if he had been gazetted to act as Asst Collector; but but the only Gazette notice was that required by the Criminal Procedure Code to legalize his proceedings. Vide Fort St. George Gazette dated 16th December 1872 page 1968. I have the honor therefore to request that the sum of Rs 1036-15- for the payment of the amount Rs 1036-15- This is 809-2-1 in excess of what he would have drawn if in Ryacud, which is only a fair remuneration for the extra & additional responsibility devolving and additional responsibility.

I have &c

No 1066

Forwarded to Government with the remark that there are no rules under which Mr Underwood can draw asking allowance for being in charge of the Office of Asst Collector of Ellalabad, as the appointment of Asst Collector is one that cannot be held by an Uncovenanted Officer but is strictly reserved for a Covenanted Civilian.

Mr Underwood also cannot draw the special allowance of Rupees 150 as Mr Nugent is only Collector for any period during which he is resident at duty at a place beyond the limits of that Talug as it is a purely local allowance.

To The Secretary to Government
Revenue Department

Comp 2d.

Under the special circumstances of the case the Govt remission the Deputation allowance of Rs 1034. 15 to Mr Underwood.
