Memo

One B Subba Rao a Revenue Inspector in the Kistna District was removed from his post by the Collector on the 1st December 1871 as he had attained the age of fifty-five

2. Subsequently, the division officer under whom he had served recommended his reinstatement and the Collector having supported the recommendation, the Government in G.O No. 977 Dated 24th June 1872 permitted his retention in the service subject to annual report as to his continued efficiency—

3. He now prays that he may receive pay for the period he was out of Employ.

4. The Collector referring to

I would rie half beg - it is ably a best be would bee pt on fun tin - but to retiring - orde not been finished to a similar case in the same district, in which Government sanctions half pay suggests that half pay should be granted to this petitioner also -

5. Except that the present petetioner was longer out of employ, the cases of the two men seem similar in every respect
