Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 26th August 1874.

No. 253. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 11th August 1874, No. 2,199:—

Read the following letter from J. HUNTER-BLAIR, Esq., Collector of Madras, to J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 6th July 1874, No. 133.

I HAVE the honor to inform the Board that I have recently received two applications, one from the Secretary to the Madras Bank, and the other from the Agent of the Oriental Bank, requesting refund of the stamp-duty paid on certain printed forms of Bills of Exchange and Powers of Attorney.

* From Madras Bank, dated 15th June 1874, No. 812.

From the Agent to the Oriental Bank Corporation, Madras, dated 17th June, 1874, No. 24-3,788.

the Madras Bank, and the other from the Agent of the Oriental Bank, requesting refund of the stamp-duty paid on certain printed forms of Bills of Exchange and Powers of Attorney.

2. All these forms were stamped more than a year previous to the date of application, and the claim for refund is preferred under the orders permitting refund of the value of spoiled stamps within six months from the date on which they become spoiled.

3. The printed forms were originally furnished by the respective Banks, and the stamp-duty denoted on them by the Superintendent of Stamps on payment. The Agent of the Oriental Bank explains that new forms of Powers of Attorney with fresh provisions having been received four months ago from England, the old ones returned by him have become spoiled and useless. The Secretary to the Madras Bank explains that the forms of Bills of Exchange returned by him are for larger sums than under the rules now in force can be discounted by any of the Banks' Branches.

4. The case of these forms does not strictly fall under any of the clauses of Section 46 of Act XVIII. of 1869, explaining what are spoiled stamps; also the printed forms are not more spoiled now than when the stamp-duty was denoted on them, except as regards the subsequent effect on them as shown by the two Banks.

5. The nature of the Bank's business renders it necessary for them to keep always a stock of stamped printed forms, and it is hard to refuse refund when alterations render the old forms useless. I also think the case of the Oriental Bank might be held to fall under clause 2 of Section 46, which permits refund of stamp-duty on documents which are discovered to be incorrectly drawn up, before they are finally executed. This section will not, however, apply to the Bill of Exchange forms returned by the Madras Bank, as there is no alteration now made in the terms of the form. They are simply overstamped.

6. I, therefore, request the orders of the Board as to whether I may grant refund in these cases.

The Board resolve to request Government to obtain the opinion of the Law Officers on the point referred.

2. The refunds are claimed under the Notification of the Government of India, dated 13th June 1873, No. 1,041, and from the correspondence recorded in G. O., dated 15th December 1873, No. 1,427, it appears that the Notification must be construed as extending the time allowed for refund beyond the period of one year prescribed by Section 45 of the General Stamp Act.

*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,

3. The question for determination is, whether the stamped papers in the cases under notice can be held to have been spoiled or unfit for use within the meaning of any of the clauses of Section 46, or whether they must be regarded as not required for use, in which case the limit of one year from the date of purchase would seem to apply.
