Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 27th August 1874.

No. 263. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 17th August 1874, No. 2,287 :—

Read the following letter from the Hon. V. RAMIENGAR, C. S. I., Superintendent of Stamps, to J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Madras, 30th July 1874, No. 976 :—

In acknowledging the receipt of the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated the 22nd instant, No. 1,917, I have the honor to request permission to make one remark, and that is, that I never for a moment contemplated the case of a forger himself or his accomplices being so stupid as to appear before the authorities with their own forged stamps for refunds. If stamps are at all forged, I presume they are also sold to some extent at least, though doubtless with all possible caution, and thus converted into money. In this case they must change hands, and, changing hands, occasionally find their way to a Collector's Office through the agency of others than the forgers themselves. If A. or B. forges a lot of stamps and contrives to sell them to E. F. and G., and E. F. and G. buy them without knowing any thing of the forgery, and afterwards spoil or do not use some of the stamps, there is nothing to prevent their unwittingly presenting such stamps for refunds. It is such cases that were present to my mind when I wrote. Of course forgeries of stamps have been very rare and may never occur, but this is no reason for neglecting any necessary or obvious precautions.

Submitted to Government, in continuation of Board's Proceedings, dated 22nd July 1874, No. 1,917.
