Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 24th January 1874.

No. 209. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 15th January 1874, Miscellaneous No. 268 :—

Read the following letter from W. McQUHAE, Esq., Collector of Madura, to J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 12th December 1873, No. 386.

I HAVE the honour to report that one Marimuttu, a female servant (messenger) on the establishment of the deposed Poligar of Ramnad in receipt of a pension of Rs. 1-8-0 per mensem (referred to in the list embodied in the Board's Proceedings, dated 12th March 1863, No. 1,456), died on the 28th September 1871, but the Head Assistant Collector, without reporting the matter for orders, appointed one Kamakshi in her stead, and she now continues to perform her duties in the palace. The Accountant-General passed her pay since that period, but now objects to pass it without the formal sanction of Government.

2. The ladies of the family are reduced to two in number, while there are four messengers besides Kamakshi, and her services are, therefore, not required, and she may be discharged. I, therefore, request that sanction may be obtained, authorizing the Accountant-General to pass her pay for September and for any further period she may serve before her discharge.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government.

2. The Board support the Collector's recommendation.

No. 210. ORDER THEREON, 24th January 1874, No. 110.

Miscellaneous.

REDUCTION authorized accordingly with the proviso mentioned by the Collector in paragraph 2.
