2. I am now to state, for the information of His Excellency the Governor in Council, that the Government of India has decided that the prepayment of duty on all Salt exported from Bombay shall be compulsory from and after the 1st of October next ensuing, and a Notification to this effect will presently be issued by the Government of Bombay. I am to request that, under the orders of His Excellency the Governor in Council, you will cause the new arrangement to be communicated to the States of Travancore and Cochin, those Governments being at the same time informed that the Government of India has not overlooked the necessity of protecting their interests in the matter, and that equitable arrangements will be made with them in regard to it.

3. The Governor-General in Council will now await an expression of the opinion of the Government of Madras on the most equitable and convenient arrangement that can be made, and a reply is requested with the least possible delay.

No. 62. ORDER THEREON, 4th September 1874, No. 1,134.

To The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras

Calcutta dated 6th August 1874.

Commerce and Trade.

S. R,

I am directed to express the regret with which the Governor General in Council finds that no reply has as yet been received to any of the numerous letters addressed to the Government of Madras on the subject of the arrangement which will become necessary with the States of Travancore and Cochin when the existing practice of permitting the shipment of salt from Bombay works at anything under the full rate of duty, is discontinued.

* See my letter No. 9 dated the 9th June 1873 and subsequent reminders.

2. I am now to state for the information of His Excellency the Governor in Council, that the Government of India has decided that the prepayment of duty on on all Salt exported from Bombay shall be compulsory from and after the 1st of October next ensuing, and a Notification to the effect will presently be issued by the Government of Bombay. I am to request that, under the orders of His Excellency the Governor in Council, you will cause the new arrangement to be communicated to the States of Travancore and Cochin, those Governments being at the same time informed that the Government of India has not overlooked the necessity of protecting their interests in the matter, and that equitable arrangements will be made with them in regard to it.

3. The Governor General in Council will now await an expression of the opinion of the Government of Madras on the most equitable and convenient arrangement that can be made, and a reply is requested with the least possible delay.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your Most Obedient Servant,
