Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
26th January 1874.

No. 217. Read the following letter from R. W. LODWICK, Esq., Accountant-General, Madras, to D. F. CARMICHAEL, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort St. George, 13th January 1874, No. 492:—

I HAVE the honour to state, with reference to the Board's Proceedings, No. 10, dated 6th instant, that it is not fair to say that this department could know, for certain, that the estimated balance of Rs. 3,74,516 at the close of August 1873 chiefly consisted of Notes, inasmuch as it had no return of Notes for August before it, and knew only that there was a Note-balance of Rs. 1,89,410 on the 31st July, which balance, as I received no telegraphic or other intimation of need of funds, it was reasonable to suppose had been, to a great extent, converted into silver. That this supposition was correct is shown by the Collector's own letter, wherein he acknowledges an influx of 61,000 Rs. in silver into his treasury, reducing his Note-balance to 1,20,000.

No. 218. ORDER THEREON, 26th January 1874, No. 114.

Miscellaneous.

RECORDED. The Government see no advantage in the continuance of this controversy.
