REMARKS.—The land in column 8 was washed away six years ago by the surplus water of the tank. The land now selected is unoccupied waste. Although the extent of fresh assignment is more than that of the lost Inam by acre 0-33, yet the assessment of both the lands is equal. The Inamdar is willing to take it [illegible]. It is recommended that the land now proposed may be granted as Inam in lieu of that lost.
