Sir,

With reference to your Officiating Secretary's letter dated 31st July 1874, No. 3330/20 I am directed to inform you that there is no elementary work on Agriculture in use in this Presidency, & that it is not in contemplation to have one prepared.

I think May the letter of the referred to Mr Robertson the Dir of Edn — with suggestion that he prepare one suitable for this country. If an elementary character of this grant him required to an honorarium

He needs such a work more than do the Mysoreans
