No. 19. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 24th September 1874, No. 2,766 :—

Read the following letter from P. DAVIDSON, Esq., Acting Collector of Ganjam, to J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Chetterpore, 15th September 1874, No. 1,855 :—

I HAVE the honor to inform you that Mr. Maltby, my Senior Assistant, has intimated to me his intention of proceeding to Madras by the next steamer due here about the 23rd instant.

2. Mr. Maltby's object in going to Madras is to try for honors in Telugu, and he is very desirous to avail himself of a month's privilege leave to which it appears he is also entitled. His leave to proceed to Madras to be examined has already been granted him.

3. I find that I cannot get any assistance from Captain Smith, the Special Assistant, as he is going into the Maliah very shortly, and I hardly think it possible I can alone discharge the whole of Mr. Maltby's duties for two months, in addition to my own, without arrears unavoidably accumulating.

4. I have therefore the honor to request you will be good enough to move Government to send me an experienced Covenanted Assistant should one be available, failing in which I trust the services of a General duty Deputy Collector may be placed at my disposal.

5. As the notice I have been able to give you is so short and as the distance along one, I have taken the liberty of enclosing copies of Testimonials which R. Sooria Rao, brother of my Salt Deputy Collector holds, and who is a candidate for a Deputy Collectorship.

6. Should you not know of a better man whose services may be made at once available, I request that R. Sooria Rao, who is now in the Vizagapatam District as First Class Police Inspector, may be directed by telegram to join me here, and I further request that he may be temporarily invested with First Class Magistrate powers.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.—Copy of Testimonials.

No. 20. ORDER THEREON, 2nd October 1874, No. 1,256.

Miscellaneous.

THE Government have no available Deputy-Collector to detach on this duty from another district, and it is impossible to entertain an additional man.

2. The simplest course is to place the Salt Deputy R. Dharma Rau Nayudu at the disposal of the Collector for general duty, and this is accordingly ordered. He will carry on his ordinary duties as well.

3. The necessary orders for his investiture with 1st-class Magisterial powers will be issued in the Judicial Department.
