Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
16th November 1874.

No. 86. Read the following letter from J. HUNTER-BLAIR, Esq., Collector of Madras, to C. G. MASTER, Esq., Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Madras, 29th October 1874, No. 259 :—

I HAVE despatched to-day a telegram stating that "Raghunada Row declines to go to Indore."

2. Your telegram of the 26th was received by me during the night of the 27th. The next morning I sent it to Raghunada Row, and late in the afternoon, on receipt, sent your second telegram. To-day I received R. Raghunada Row's reply, of which I enclose a copy for the information of Government, giving his reasons for not being able to take up the appointment until the end of the current fasli.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From R. RAGHUNADA ROW, Deputy-Collector, to J. HUNTER-BLAIR, Esq., Collector of Madras, dated 29th October 1874,

IN reply to your note and the telegrams herewith returned, which reached me yesterday, I beg to state that I some time ago expressed to His Highness the Maharajah Holkar's Government my willingness to go to Indore for six months if permitted by Government, but on my showing the first telegram to the Members of the Board they have told me that they think it very desirable, in the interests of public service, that I should stay here at least till the end of the current fasli. I therefore do not feel myself at liberty to leave for Indore before the end of June next.

No. 87. ORDERED that the following telegram be despatched to the Government of India, Foreign Department :—

Miscellaneous.

"Letter, 17th October. Raghunada Row willing to go to Indore. Will be sent at once if desired, but more convenient to Government next April."

(True Extract.)
