Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated to request that the Government of Bombay accordance with the Board's proposal, the payment,—an arrangement which will obviate on capital and insurance on costly cargoes.

3. It has been stated that, under instructions from the Government of Bombay, salt cannot be shipped except in bags. If this be the case, I am directed to point out that this system must add considerably to the cost, and that where full duty is paid such a restriction seems wholly unnecessary.

To

The Secretary to the Government of Bombay

The Government of Bombay will have learnt from my letter of 30th October 1874 No. 1377 that this Govt. has decided not to increase the price of salt in the Malabar and South Cannara districts consequent upon the recent change under which the duty on salt is levied at Bombay.

In order that the prime cost of the Bombay salt exported to those districts may be reduced as much as possible, I am directed, with

It is proposed that Bombay will be enough to arrange conformity with the proposal, that the may be adjusted by an account payment, an arrangement which will obviate the additional expense caused by interest on capital and insurance on costly car-
