Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 5th December 1874.

No. 60. Read the following letter from R. W. LODWICK, Esq., Accountant-General, to C. G. MASTER, Esq., Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort St. George, 21st October 1874, No. 376:—

With reference to G. O., No. 1,228, dated 28th September 1874, I have the honor to state that, in my opinion, the words used in paragraph 5 of Government of India Resolution in the Financial Department, No. 3,927, dated 31st October 1872, "first five years of their service," following immediately as they do the words "Civil Second Assistants," must be held to refer to aggregate service as Second Assistants and not to include probationary service which, as a period of trial, though counting for pension, does not seem to give an officer any claim to an increase of salary.

No. 61. ORDER THEREON, 5th December 1874, No. 1,503.

Miscellaneous.

THE Accountant-General's view of the case appears to be correct.

2. He has not noticed the question as to the exclusion from the term of service of the period passed on leave, but having in view the provisions of Clause (c), Section 7, Civil Leave Code, the Government consider that leave other than privilege leave cannot be reckoned as service in the case of an Uncovenanted Officer.

FROM THE ACCOUNTANT GENERAL

TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

To THE

Secretary to Government
Revenue Department

SIR,

With reference to G.O. No. 1228 dated 28 September 1874, I have the honor to state that in my opinion, the words used in para 5 of Government of India Resolution in the Financial Department No. 3927 dated 31 October 1872,
"First five years of their service" following immediately as they do the words "Civil Assistants" must be held to refer to aggregate service as Civil Assistants and not to include Probationary Service, which, as a period of trial, though admitting for pension, does not seem to give an officer any claim to an increase of salary.

I have the honor to be

Sir,

Your obedient servant

DECEMBER.

Nos. 60-61.

Mr. Paymaster of the Revenue Survey—Oberting, in reference to the claim of— for increased salary, that the Accountant-General's view that five years' service is inclusive of probationary service is correct, and that leave other than privilege leave cannot be reckoned as service in the case of an Unemployed Officer.
