Salt.

SIR,—In my letter, dated 26th October 1874, No. 1,369, it was stated (paragraph 1) that this Government had decided not to enhance the Government selling price of Salt in the Western Coast Districts of the Presidency, consequent upon the recent change whereby full duty is charged at Bombay. I am now directed to forward, for information, copy of their Proceedings on the subject, dated 17th October 1874, No. 1,338.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

(Signed) C. G. MASTER,
Acting Secretary to Government.

Sir,

In my letter dated 26th October 1874, whereby it was stated (para 1) that this part had been sent to the Hon. the Comr. of the port of salt in the Western most districts of the Presidency, consequent upon the recent change whereby full duty is charged at Bombay.
I am now directed to forward for information copy of their Proceedings on the subject dated 17th October 1874, 1874.
