Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 17th December 1874.

Read again Accountant-General's letter, dated 18th May 1874, No. 68, recorded in the Proceedings of Government, dated 22nd May 1874, No. 621.

No. 209. Read also the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 26th November 1874, No. 3,416:—

Read the following letter from J. HUNTER-BLAIR, Esq., Collector of Madras, to J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 27th October 1874, No. 255:—

With reference to Board's Proceedings, dated 30th September 1874, No. 2,818, I have the honor to report that there is no doubt as to the genuineness of the claim for payment of salt compensation proffered by C. V. Cunniah Chettyar.

2. The last payment was up to 31st December 1865, and the reason assigned for not drawing it since, is the applicant's minority. He was a ward of the High Court. They had appointed a Receiver for the management of his Estate and held the salt compensation certificate in their possession, but why they took no steps to realize the annual payment due on it is not clear.

3. The arrears are payable to the applicant Cunniah Chettyar.

4. Copy of the Deputy-Collector's report on this subject, dated 20th October 1874, No. 1,585, is forwarded.

Enclosure No. 1.

From R. RAGGONATHA ROW, Deputy-Collector, to J. HUNTER-BLAIR, Esq., Collector of Madras, dated 20th October 1874, No. 1,585.

I have the honor to submit the report called for in Revenue Board's Proceedings No. 2,818, of 30th September last, on the subject of payment of salt compensation to C. V. Cunniah Chettyar.

2. This gentleman holds by purchase Salt Compensation Certificate No. 35 of 26th March 1824, and the compensation was drawn up to 31st December 1865, and his claim to the arrears is valid.

3. C. V. Cunniah Chettyar states that he was not able to draw the compensation from 1867 by reason of his minority, and the certificate having been till recently in the custody of the High Court.

4. The certificate stood registered in the books of this Office in the name of C. Cunniah Chetty, the late father of the present applicant, and it was transferred to the Accountant-General on the 29th September 1870.

(True Copy.)

(Signed) J. HUNTER-BLAIR,
Collector of Madras.

Submitted to Government with reference to G. O., 22nd May 1874, No. 621.

2. There appears to be no doubt as to the validity of the claim to arrears of salt compensation, which were not drawn owing to the omission of the High Court Receiver appointed during the applicant's minority.

3. The delay in reporting has resulted from a difficulty in tracing the allowance, through the amalgamation and separation of the Chingleput and Madras Districts.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE, dated 26th November 1874.

Read the following letter from J. HUNTER-BLAIR, Esq., Collector of Madras, to J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 27th October 1874, No. 255:—

With reference to Board's Proceedings, dated 30th September 1874, No. 2,313, I have the honor to report that there is no doubt as to the genuineness of the claim for payment of salt compensation preferred by C. V. Cunniah Chettyar.

2. The last payment was up to 31st December 1860, and the reason assigned for not drawing it since, is the applicant's minority. He was a ward of the High Court. They had appointed a Receiver for the management of his Estate and held the salt compensation certificate in their possession, but why they took no steps to realize the annual payment due on it is not clear.

3. The arrears are payable to the applicant Cunniah Chettyar.

4. Copy of the Deputy Collector's report on this subject, dated 20th October 1874, No. 1,585, is forwarded.

Enclosure No. 1.

From E. RAGOONATHA ROW, Deputy Collector, to J. HUNTER-BLAIR, Esq., Collector of Madras, dated 20th October 1874, No. 1,585.

I have the honor to submit the report called for in Revenue Board's Proceedings, No. 2,313, of 30th September last, on the subject of payment of salt compensation to C. V. Cunniah Chettyar.

2. This gentleman holds by purchase Salt Compensation Certificate No. 56 of 26th March 1824, and the compensation was drawn up to 31st December 1860, and his claim to the arrears is valid.

3. C. V. Cunniah Chettyar states that he was not able to draw the compensation from 1860 by reason of his minority, and the certificate having been till recently in the custody of the High Court.

4. The certificate stood registered in the books of this office in the name of C. Cunniah Chetty, the late father of the present applicant, and it was transferred to the Applicant-General on the 29th September 1870.
