No. 84. Read the following letter from C. W. W. MARTIN, Esq., Acting Judge of the Court of Small Causes of Madura, to the Honorable D. F. CARMICHAEL, Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Madura, 27th April 1874, No. 33:—

I understand that Government resolved, some time ago, to recognize the principle of building houses for their officers in cases where there were difficulties about procuring them.

2. I have been in Madura now for three-and-a-half months, and up to the present I have not succeeded in getting a house, and the only one likely to become vacant soon is altogether unfit for the habitation of a European gentleman and his family.

3. There is a possibility of my getting a very small house in about two months hence, but it is only a possibility, and my taking it will deprive the Assistant Collector of all chance of a house.

4. As the Judge of the Small Cause Court here has a very large number of suits annually, it is desirable that he should be under as little obligation as possible to any particular individual, even as his landlord, and I therefore trust that Government will sanction the building of a house for him, and make it obligatory on the incumbent of the office to occupy it by deducting the rent from his salary, or by such other means as may seem proper.

No. 85. ORDER THEREON, 10th July 1874, No. 1266.

The Governor in Council recognizes the principle of providing quarters on payment of a suitable rent for officers in stations where it is difficult to obtain house-accommodation.

2. Orders will therefore be issued in the Public Works Department, in continuation of the order in that Department, dated the 24th June 1874, No. 1661, for the preparation of plans and estimates for quarters for the Judge of the Court of Small Causes at Madura, and his successors.

3. The Governor in Council considers that it may be desirable that the Government should become the proprietors of all houses, the property of Zemindars or native officials, which are now, and generally, occupied by Judicial and Revenue Covenanted Officers, and are suitable for the purpose. A circular will accordingly be addressed to every District Judge, Small Cause Court Judge, Collector, Sub-Collector, and Head Assistant, calling upon them to fill up the following Return:—

Head-quarters Station.	Description of House and premises, and whether taken furnished or not.	Name and Quality of landlord.	Rent paid.	Remarks.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 10th July 1874.

4. As it will be impracticable to provide funds in any one year for the purchase or construction of more than a few houses, a selection will be annually made as circumstances may require.
