1	Ramachandrapuram Taluk. Ramachandrapuram and Muchumilli villages. Allowance per annum Rupees 22-7-0.	This allowance was granted in lieu of Inam lands at Ramachandrapuram and Muchumilli villages which were granted to Sultan Mahomed by Nawab As-harf Jan during the Mogul Government.	Service for keeping lights in the Panjah at Draksharama.	Mahomed Halim alias Abdool Halim Died on the 27th October 1872, Great Grandson to the original grantee.	The entire allowance is Rs. 41-11-0, of which a moiety is enjoyed by the deceased.	1. Abdool Khadir, son of the deceased, ... 35 2. Asaan Mahomed do of do. ... 25 3. Khasim Sahib do of do. ... 18 4. Gorbess, daughter of do. ... 20 5. Najooftice do. of do. ... 10 6. Laith Sahib, son of the elder grandfather of the deceased, ... 60 7. Kasmally Sahib, grand-son of the elder grandfather of do. ... 40 8. Mahman Sahib, son of the Father of the paternal aunt of do. ... 35 9. Frachabee, daughter of the younger brother of do. ... 40 There were not any kind of lands possessed by the deceased.	The allowance of Rupees 41-11-0 was sanctioned by Government, in paragraph 4 of the Extract Minutes of Consultation, dated 20th June 1845, No. 656, in the names of Husan Mahomed and Mahomed Halim alias Abdool Halim (deceased) and a moiety was enjoyed by the latter— vide Statement No. 1 which accompanied the report of the Sub-Collector in charge, dated 18th February 1848, No. 27. The Tahsildar reports that the parties Nos. 6, 7, 8 and 9 were the divided members of the family but enjoying a share in the allowance on a private arrangement entered into between them and the deceased. Nos. 1 and 2 were employed in the Police Department, but they adopted measures for the due performance of the prescribed services in the "Panjah." Kasim Ally Sahib (No. 3) is absent at present from the village. Sanction of Government is solicited for continuing the allowance together with arrears to Abdool Khadir (No. 1). The death of Mahomed Halim was reported by the Tahsildar on the 25th ultimo. On being called upon to explain the cause of the delay he furnished a written Statement from the village authorities of Draksharama, from which it appears that Mahomed Halim having died at Ramachandrapuram they were not able to bring the matter to notice before.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 26th February 1874.

SUBJECT to the confirmation of Government the Board sanction the continuance of the allowance and payment of the arrears to Abdool Khadir eldest son of the deceased.
