FROM

C. G. MASTER, Esq.,

Acting Secretary to the Government of Fort St. George,

TO

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

I am directed to forward the following case for the favourable consideration of the Governor-General in Council.

2. V. Rungasawmy Naidoo entered the Government service as a Peon in the Sayer Department, Madras, in January 1833, and remained in that employment until the abolition of the department in March 1844. He then continued without employment until March 1845, when he became a Talar in the Madras Town Police. It is on record that he served in this capacity for nearly four years and a half, but it cannot be ascertained how his service was then terminated. The Commissioner of Police conjectures that he may have been struck off the rolls for absence without leave, but states that "it is not known why his services were dispensed with."

3. From September 1849 to the 24th March 1853 V. Rungasawmy appears to have had no employment, but on the latter date he was employed as a temporary Peon in the Salt Department, and, after a service there of nearly six months, was permanently employed as a Peon in the Telegraph Office, Madras. In March 1855 he lost this employment owing to a reduction of the establishment, but received a certificate testifying to his having been honest and attentive to his duties. In August 1856 he was entertained as a Peon in the Government Office, where he remained, for more than 17 years, until invalided on the 16th of December last.

4. It will thus be seen that V. Rungasawmy was off and on in Government service for 40 years and 11 months; but, owing to his losing his employment on three different occasions, and owing to a portion of his services having been of a temporary nature, his actual qualifying service amounts only to 34 years, 5 months, and 16 days, or $6\frac{1}{2}$ months less than the term qualifying for pension.

5. It has already been noticed that nothing is shown as to the cause of his leaving the Police, but in two other cases he was thrown out of employ from causes beyond his own control. His conduct is reported to have been good, and I am, therefore, to recommend that he be granted an invalid pension of Rupees (3-8-0) three and Annas eight per mensem, to which he would have been entitled if his qualifying service had been $6\frac{1}{2}$ months longer.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

OOTACAMUND,
23rd May 1874.

In reply to your letter, No. 293, dated 23rd May 1874, I am directed to say that the Governor-General in Council regrets that he is unable to find sufficient grounds for recommending to the Secretary of State that an invalid pension may be given as a special case to V. Rungasamy Naidoo.

ORDER THEREON, 25th August 1874; No. 506.

The Government of India having declined to recommend the grant of an invalid pension to Veeraragavapooram Rungasamy Naidoo, late a peon in the Revenue Department of the Government Secretariat, His Excellency the Governor in Council directs, under Sections 49 and 63 (a) of the Civil Pension Code (2nd Edition) that V. Rungasamy Naidoo be granted the invalid gratuity of Rupees (35) thirty-five, or five months salary, to which he is entitled for his qualifying inferior service of seventeen years, three months, and twenty-five days.
