Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 14th March 1874

No. 140. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 10th March 1874, No. 536:—

Read the following letter from R. W. BARLOW, Esq., Collector of the Chingleput District, to J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 23rd February 1874, No. 54.

IN forwarding the translation of a plaint filed in the District Court of Chingleput in O. S. No. 13 of 1873, in which the Collector has been included as 4th defendant, together with a draft answer I propose to file, I have the honour to request the sanction of the Board to the suit being defended at the public expense.

2. The object of the suit, as will be seen from the notes on the left margin of paragraph 10 of the plaint, is to obtain a putta for certain lands which are now standing in the name of the 1st defendant's husband in the Government village of Annamalaicharry; and I see no objection to such a putta being made out in the names of the plaintiffs, should the Court so decree.

3. The plaint, however, also includes certain fields which were once held on putta by the 1st defendant's husband, but which were subsequently resigned by him in favour of Government, and a small extent of gramamatham land for which no putta can be made out in plaintiff's name, as they are not the property of the defendants, and I have entered a plea to this effect.

4. The time for filing the answer expires on the 3rd proximo.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government.

2. Plaintiffs sue to establish their claims to the mirasi right of two villages, one of which is ryotwary and the other a shrotriam. The Collector has been made a defendant pro forma to obtain an order for the issue of putta in plaintiffs' names for the lands of the Government village of Annamalaicharry.

3. The Board recommend that the defence of the suit be sanctioned. They have slightly amended the draft answer.

4. The 3rd March was the date fixed for the hearing, but the Collector was directed to apply for an extension.

No. 141. ORDER THEREON, 14th March 1874, No. 344.

 Suit No. 11 of 1873, filed in District Court of Chingleput—Sanction defence of—

seen from the notes on the left margin of para 10 of the plaint is to obtain a puttah for certain lands which are now standing in the name of the 1st Defendant's husband, in the Government village of Annamalai Charry, and I see no objection to such a puttah being made out in the names of the Plaintiffs, should the Court so decree.

3. The Plaint, however, also includes certain fields which were once held on Puttah by the 1st Defendant's husband,
but which were subsequently resigned
by him in favor of Government, and a small extent of Gramanatham land for which no puttah can be made out in Plaintiffs' name, as they are not

not the property of the Defendants,
and I have entered a plea to this effect.

The time for filing the answer
expires on the 3^d proximo.
