Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
16th March 1874.

No. 146. Read the following letter from LIEUT.-COLONEL J. H. M. SHAW STEWART, R. E., Consulting Engineer for Railways, to COLONEL G. W. WALKER, R. E., Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 5th March 1874, No. 131.

REFERRING to the Proceedings of Government, No. 103, dated 15th January 1874, I have the honour to request that I may be informed of the result of the action taken by the Revenue Department in reference to the land required in the Carvetnugger Zemindari for the formation of the embankment, and also in regard to the free quarrying of stone for the construction of the revetment, to be undertaken in connection with the protective works to the Naggery bridge.

2. As pointed out in paragraph 7 of my letter, dated 11th December 1873, No. 667, embodied in the above-quoted order, although authority was long since given for the carrying out of these works, the Railway authorities have as yet been able to repair the existing revetment only.

No. 147. ORDER THEREON, 16th March 1874, No. 347.

Miscellaneous.

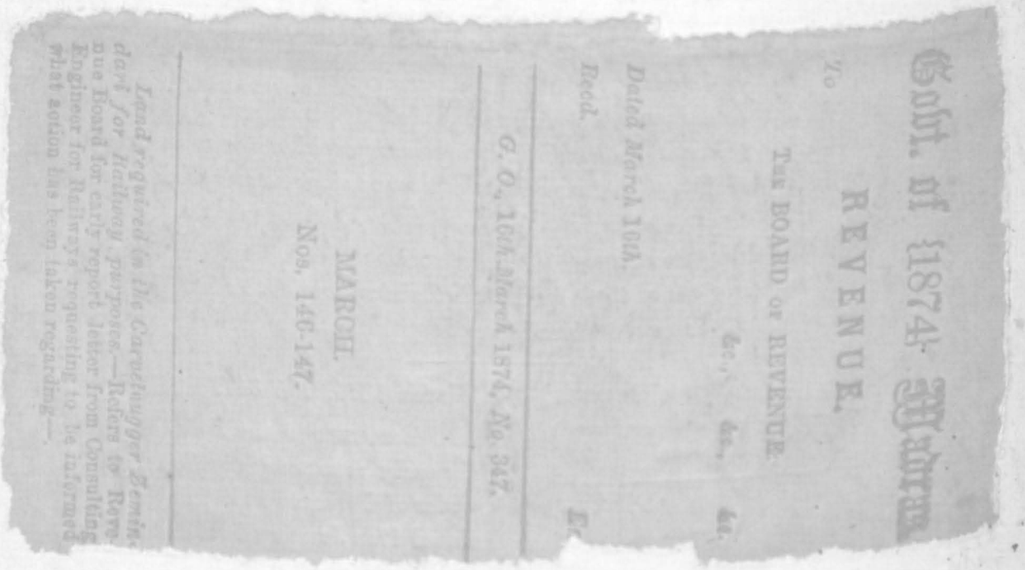

REFERRED to the Board of Revenue for early report with reference to the order of Government in this Department, dated 17th January 1874, No. 93.
