W. S. Forster Esquire,

&c. Collector of the

Godavery District

Sir,

The Agraharandars of Nandi Eeswara puram in Ellore Taluq, represent that out of the wet lands of their Village, only A. 12·09 were first recognized as usual wet

dry

by the Irám Commissioner, and that all wet cultivation above that extent was charged with water tax from Fasli 1276 to Fasli 1281, when, on their placing the matter again before the Irám Commissioner, Acres 16·97 were classed as usual wet, which including the allowance for incorrect measurements, amounts to A. 18·67 - From the statements herein enclosed, it will be observed that the cultivation of wet land in the village has been within that extent, and all that was classed over and above the formerly recognized area A. 13·30 including the allowance, has to be exempted from water tax. Of
