2. As far as regards Clause 5. of Rule XIII. of the Rules regarding the manner of dealing with memorials addressed to Her Majesty's Secretary of State, the Governor-General in Council is pleased to issue the following instructions for the guidance of Local Governments and Administrations: Where the executive has retained no legal power of interference with a judicial order, as in the instance of a decree on a private suit, it is clearly for the benefit of the public that their appeals should not be uselessly sent on; but where the Government has reserved any discretion whatever of interference, or where the Government is in any way concerned as a party to the suit, the rule of transmission must be invariable.
