Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 24th April 1874.

No. 193. From J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, to
C. G. MASTER, Esq., Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Madras, 16th April 1874, No. 902.

Read the following Proceedings of the Madras Government, dated 12th March 1874, No. 337, Revenue Department:—

ABSTRACT.—Certificates prescribed by Section 14 of the Land Improvement Act of 1871.—Refers to Revenue Board for opinion letter from Government of India requesting information on certain points connected with the stamping of—

With reference to G. O., dated 12th March 1874, No. 337, I am directed to state that no experience has been gained in this Presidency as to the working of the Land Improvement Act but that theoretically the Board are of opinion—

1. That the requirement of a stamp would not discourage applications for advances.
2. That it would not be safe to dispense with the signature of the applicant and his witnesses.

2. I am to add, however, that no experience had been gained in this Presidency, as to the working of the act.

1. The first part of the document is a list of names and dates, which appears to be a record of some kind. The names are written in a cursive script, and the dates are in a more formal, printed style. The list is organized into columns, with names in the first column and dates in the second.

2. The second part of the document is a series of handwritten notes or entries. These are written in a cursive script, similar to the names in the first part. The notes are organized into paragraphs, with some lines indented. The handwriting is somewhat slanted and cursive, typical of the period.

3. The third part of the document is a series of handwritten notes or entries, similar to the second part. These are also written in a cursive script, and are organized into paragraphs. The handwriting is consistent with the previous parts of the document.

4. The fourth part of the document is a series of handwritten notes or entries, similar to the previous parts. These are written in a cursive script, and are organized into paragraphs. The handwriting is consistent with the previous parts of the document.

5. The fifth part of the document is a series of handwritten notes or entries, similar to the previous parts. These are written in a cursive script, and are organized into paragraphs. The handwriting is consistent with the previous parts of the document.

6. The sixth part of the document is a series of handwritten notes or entries, similar to the previous parts. These are written in a cursive script, and are organized into paragraphs. The handwriting is consistent with the previous parts of the document.

7. The seventh part of the document is a series of handwritten notes or entries, similar to the previous parts. These are written in a cursive script, and are organized into paragraphs. The handwriting is consistent with the previous parts of the document.

8. The eighth part of the document is a series of handwritten notes or entries, similar to the previous parts. These are written in a cursive script, and are organized into paragraphs. The handwriting is consistent with the previous parts of the document.

9. The ninth part of the document is a series of handwritten notes or entries, similar to the previous parts. These are written in a cursive script, and are organized into paragraphs. The handwriting is consistent with the previous parts of the document.

10. The tenth part of the document is a series of handwritten notes or entries, similar to the previous parts. These are written in a cursive script, and are organized into paragraphs. The handwriting is consistent with the previous parts of the document.
