1	Tuzuki allowance of Rupees 15 per measem drawn from the Udayagiri Taluq Treasury.	Granted in the year 1841, as per India Government Order, No. 89, dated 11th January 1841, to Beebee Sahiba, wife of Abdul Khaderkhan, Father of late Jaghireder of Udayagiri.	Granted for maintenance in lieu of resumed Jaghire.	Beebee Sahiba died on 8th November 1873.	The whole was enjoyed by the deceased.	1. Khadri Sahib, sister's son, an alleged adopted son, age 50 years. 2. His wife Khajabee, age 47 years. 3. His 1st son Gulam Alli Sahib, age 30 years. 4. His 2nd son Makum Sahib, age 25 years. 5. His 2nd wife Sultanbee, age 25 years. 6. His 2nd wife's 1st daughter Meerabee, age 15 years. 7. His 2nd wife's 2nd daughter Rosumbee, age 10 years. 8. His 2nd wife's 3rd daughter Bambee, age 3 years. 9. His 2nd wife's 1st son Nanel sahib, age 5 years. 10. His 2nd wife's 2nd son, Gous Sahib, age 1 year.	Beebee Sahiba is reported to have died on 8th November 1873. The Village Munsif and Curnam reported the event to the Tahsildar, who reported it to the Head-Assistant Collector. Beebee Sahiba had been inspected by Mrs. Healy on the 25th August 1873, or 24 months before her death. Her age was then recorded as 82 years. 2. She has left no children or other direct heirs. The person who puts himself forward as her heirs is one Khadari Sahib, her sister's son, alleged to have been adopted by her. The Tahsildar of Udayagiri has enquired into the subject of the adoption. The persons examined were the Village Munsif and Curnams of Udayagiri, the Kazi at Udayagiri and one Syed Mahomed Sahib, a Tavazzidar on 7 Rupees, and two others China Syed Mahomed Sahib and Gouse Sahib. He reports that these people bore testimony to the fact of the alleged adoption, and stated that the deceased adopted Khadari Sahib, when he was a child and brought him up as her son in her house. In regard to the recent application of Khadari Sahib for a grant for funeral charges, submitted in my letter of 24th November last, No. 2,515, the Board were disinclined to support the same. I do not think the pension of the deceased should be continued to Khadari Sahib. The arrears for 8 days due to the deceased may be paid to Khadari Sahib as her only representative existing.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
27th April 1874.

KHADARI SAHIB's claim is inadmissible for two reasons, viz., (1) the allowance in question was a life grant and (2) according to Mahomedan law adoption confers no right of inheritance. The proposal in regard to payment of the arrears is sanctioned.
