Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 4th May 1874.

No. 37. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 30th March 1874, No. 730:—

Read the following letter from G. D. LEMAN, Esq., Collector of the Kistna District, to J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Masulipatam, 20th February 1874, No. 286:—

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of the Board, the death, on the 3rd January last, of Kandi Lakshmana Row.

2. He was a son of Narsinga Row, lately Board's Sheristadar, to whom Government granted a pension, and was one of the sharers with his three brothers in the Rupees 400, per mensem, which has been drawn by Kandi Rama Row, as the eldest son, since his father's death.

3. I enclose Rama Row's letter asking the continuance of the full share of pension his deceased brother drew, to his orphan son Venkataramana Row, for the favourable consideration of Government.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From K. RAMA ROW, to G. D. LEMAN, Esq., Collector of the Kistna District, dated Masulipatam, 14th February 1874.

You will be sorry to hear of the death of my brother Kandi Lakshmana Row, which took place on 3rd ultimo, in the Kanigiri Taluq, of which he was Tahsildar. The place never agreed with his constitution, and when he rejoined his taluq, in the middle of November last, from his sick leave, he was apparently perfectly healthy. So soon as a month after, he was laid up with ague, of which he died.

2. He has left behind him a son (Kandi Venkataramana Row), who is now both motherless and fatherless, his mother having died a fortnight after his birth. He is now ten years old.

3. Lakshmana Row has also left a widow by his re-marriage.

4. Under Order of Government, dated 1st December 1866, No. 3,281, Lakshmana Row, had a coparcenary interest in the second life pension of Rupees 400, hitherto drawn by me. I therefore request that you will be so good as to communicate to the Board the report of the untimely death of one of the sons of their Head Sheristadar, and obtain sanction for my continuing to draw the full second life pension of Rupees 400 as heretofore, two of the holders of the second life pension, myself and my brother Krishna Row, being alive. Lakshmana Row's share will be paid, in future to his son Venkataramana Row. Venkataramana Row, representing his father in the same way that my nephew Venkatakrishna Row, does his father Venkoba Row.

5. The unfortunate orphan is under my guardianship, and he has scarcely any thing beyond his share of the pension to live upon. His education has scarcely commenced.

The orders of Government do not appear to be required.

2. Under the G. O., quoted by K. Rama Row, the second life pension of Rupees 400 per mensem should continue to be drawn by him as the eldest surviving son of R. R. R. K. Narsinga Row, and it is for him to make over the one-fourth share to the son of his deceased brother K. Lakshmana Row.
