*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
5th May 1874.*

No. 67. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 27th April 1874, Miscellaneous No. 2,861:—

Read the following letter from J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Collector of South Arcot, to J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Cuddalore, 10th April 1874, No. 173.

I HAVE the honour to forward in original, two letters (to be returned) from the Temporary Deputy-Collector on Remission Duties, asking for an increase of batta for himself and of pay or batta for his clerk on account of the arduous duties they have had to perform, and to recommend for the favourable consideration of the Board that the rate of Rs. 2 a-day for the Deputy-Collector be raised to Rs. 3, and the rate of Annas 4 for his clerk to Annas 8.

2. I have not the slightest doubt from the report and details sent in to me by Vencatasoobiah that he has spared neither himself nor his clerk, and that the inspection work on which they have been engaged was very arduous and fatiguing.

3. I believe that Mr. Banbury was much pleased with the manner in which the Deputy-Collector did his work and the results of it.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From S. VENCATASOOBIAH, Temporary Deputy-Collector, on Remission Duties, South Arcot, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Collector of South Arcot, dated Villapuram, 31st March 1874, No. 33.

I beg to bring to your kind notice and consideration the following few lines:—

2. Generally I used to travel from 3 A.M. to about 12 P.M., and from 3 P.M. to about 9 at night, occasionally even the whole night, since my present nomination, hardly with a recess of eight hours, for more than 20 miles a-day, in addition to the ramble from fields to fields during my inspection. This fact, I believe, you are not unaware of. As a Deputy-Collector of the 4th Class, I am entitled to draw a batta at the rate of Rs. 2, or for 10 miles per diem. This amount has hardly defrayed the expenses I incur in having engaged horses to ride on to facilitate and expedite the inspection of villages and fields and a bandy to convey my things from one village to another. The fervent heat of the summer sun to which I have been exposed and the perspiration I imbibe, I am sure you are well aware of.

3. The Salt Deputy-Collector, in consideration of his somewhat extraordinary travelling, is specially allowed to draw Rs. 3 a-day; but, comparatively speaking, my travel is manifold more and incessant. I, under these circumstances, beg this will deeply penetrate your kind heart, and incline you to get sanction for a fair rate of mileage or a special batta you consider fit for my toilsome task.

4. My works will shortly become easy when I will not demand any higher rate than what is ordinarily allowed to the 4th-class Deputy-Collectors.

ENCLOSURE No. 2.

From the same officer, dated Villapuram, 31st March 1874, No. 34.

In justifications of the request of P. Seshaghiri Row, my clerk, for an increase of his salary, I beg to take the liberty in reminding you of what I spoke to you when I had come there. It is true that he has been over-worked, as there is no other hand in my Office. With this he is to travel over the villages. His batta of 4 Annas per diem allowed to an officer below Rs. 25 does not cover even his carriage hire.

*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
5th May 1874.*

2. I therefore request you will be kind enough to increase his salary to Rs. 25, or, if it is found impracticable, his daily batta to 8 Annas.

SUBMITTED for the favourable consideration of Government.

2. The Board concur with the Collector, and they are assured by their Second Member, who has lately been in South Arcot on duty, that the proposed increase of travelling allowance has been well earned.

3. If the indulgence is granted, it should be limited to the period during which the Deputy-Collector is engaged on inspection work.
