Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 21st May 1874.

No. 203. Read the following letter from D. BARBOUR, Esq., Under-Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Hon. D. F. CARMICHAEL, Acting Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Fort William, 8th May 1874, No. 2,883:—

With reference to your letter noted on the margin, I am directed to forward
No. 427, dated 10th April 1874. copy of a despatch addressed to the Secretary of State for India, No. 8, dated 8th May 1874, and to suggest that the Superintendent of Stamps may be instructed to guard against allowing his stock of the old non-judicial stamps to be exhausted before a sufficient supply of the new stamps has been received to enable them to be brought into exclusive use.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

Despatch from the Government of India in the Financial Department.

Separate Revenue—Stamps,
No. 8.

FORT WILLIAM,
8th May 1874.

MR LORD MARQUIS,—With reference to the Judicial despatch from His Grace the Duke of Argyll, No. 71, dated 16th December 1873, we have the honour to forward a copy of papers regarding the provision in the offices in India of a sufficient reserve stock of the new non-judicial stamped papers in addition to the quantities required for current use.

2. What is chiefly necessary is that the indents for stamped papers already made be complied with on the promised dates. The Superintendents of the Stamp Offices at Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, have been requested to make arrangements for the supply of stamped papers of the sort now in use until such time as it may become possible by the accumulation of a sufficient reserve to use exclusively the new non-judicial stamps.

We have, etc.,
