RESOLUTION.

THE Governor-General in Council has read with much gratification this complete and interesting report on the operations of the Forest Department during the year 1872-73. The report contains a clear statement of the aims and objects of forest management, and of the necessary system and method in carrying out forest operations; and it shows that satisfactory progress continues to be made in the work of the department. His Excellency in Council directs that copies of the report be forwarded as usual to the Secretary of State, and circulated to all local Governments and Administrations of the department.

2. The Governor-General in Council takes this opportunity to express his sense of the excellent services rendered by Mr. Baden-Powell to the administration of forests in this country, first as Conservator of Forests in the Punjab since April 1869, and latterly, since January 1873, while holding the office of Inspector-General of Forests. His Excellency in Council commends the progress, which has of late years been made in carrying out forest operations systematically according to well-considered plans, is indebted to Mr. Powell's exertions. A large portion of his time and attention has, since November 1872, been taken up by his deputation to Burmah, where he succeeded under the orders of the Chief Commissioner, in protecting the interests of the Government in a series of complicated and difficult cases. While holding the office of Inspector-General of Forests, to work out a number of projects for the better organization of the Forest Department in the provinces of the Government of India, most of which have received the sanction of the Council, and will, His Excellency in Council feels assured, prove most beneficial to the public interest.

2. The Governor General in Council takes this opportunity to express his sense of the excellent services rendered by Mr. Baden-Powell to the administration of forests in this country, first as Conservator of Forests in the Punjab since April 1869, and latterly, since January 1873, while Officiating as Inspector General of Forests. His Excellency in Council cordially recognizes that much of the progress which has of late years been made in arranging forest operations systematically according to well-considered plans is due to Mr. Powell's exertions. A large portion of his time and attention has since November 1872 been taken up by his deputation to Burma, where he succeeded, under the orders of the Chief Commissioner, in protecting the interests of Government in a series of complicated and difficult cases. Nevertheless, he found time, while holding the office of Inspector General of Forests, to work out a number of projects for the better organization of the Forest Department in the provinces under the Government of India, most of which have received the sanction of Government, and will, His Excellency in Council feels assured, prove most beneficial to the public interest.

ORDER.—Ordered, that copies of this Resolution, together with copies of the report, be forwarded to the local Governments and Administrations noted in the margin, with the request that a copy be furnished to every Forest Officer of the grade of Sub-Assistant Conservator and upwards.

Ordered also, that a copy of this Resolution be sent to Mr. Baden-Powell for information.
